Called to reconciliation ...

I was reading Revelation 22:5 this morning: "There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light..." I love the picture of the new earth, the hope of a new world where there is no more night in our lives – no more darkness, struggle, pain, conflict, or grief. This is the coming reconciliation and renewal which is the end in view for the whole creation. Reconciliation begins in the immense love of God. God has reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation (2 Cor 5:18).

This week is National Reconciliation Week, a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures, and achievements, to contribute to building a reconciled Australia, and to strengthen respectful relationships between the wider Australian community, and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

We are called to this ministry of reconciliation together! With all people, all cultures, our neighbours, those we agree with and those we don't, and within our church. The church is the visible evidence that a better world is possible. Do we believe this, live this out and embody this? As we meet as a congregation today, let us remember these words. As we go into Reconciliation Week, let us remember these words.
