Together we serve ...

As I write this on Thursday morning, the Community Fair looms and preparations are well and truly underway. There is a sense of anticipation, perhaps a little bit of panic (!), and a sense of excitement. The plants are grown, the crafts are ready, the baking in progress, the coffee ordered, books and toys are waiting in boxes, flyers given out, the cooking in hand and activities ready to go. Some people haven't served at a Fair before, others slot into a role they have done so often over many years.

What a team this takes! This event is the biggest event we do as a congregation, people from all services are involved. It is a joy to serve together, side by side, appreciating the gifts and skills of each other. It reminds me of the body of Christ metaphor - Paul refers to this on five separate occasions in the Bible, he clearly wants us to grasp this idea. We're all different and have varied gifts and hence we need each other. Every part of the body is vital and important.

The Fair is an amazing opportunity to connect with our community around us. We welcome people to our place and offer the love and hospitality of God. And as we do so, we experience the joy of serving together.

Blessings, Lynne

Ground Art

Sunday afternoon 3rd November @ 2 pm. AW/UC carpark. Please bring some afternoon tea to share.

All welcome.

We will be re-defining the ground art as a symbolic gesture of our commitment to Aboriginal people and recognition of their ongoing relationship to this land. Please bring a small paint brush, a small cup or plate to paint from, and turps if possible.. The paint is an oil based permanent medium and is therefore is not suitable for unsupervised children. Looking forward to painting with you!

For more information please see Ruth Harbinson-Gresham

Thank you to all involved with the Community Fair. This takes a huge team, some preparing over many months - making craft, growing plants, collecting, organising entertainment and stalls, graphic design of flyers; others giving time this week for set up and pack down, bake, give out flyers, and all praying and on duty on the day. Thank you to everyone for your involvement in this wonderful opportunity to connect with our community – your ministry and care is appreciated!
