Joy at Easter ...

Our Easter services were times of joy – following last year when we were all in lockdown, there was an extra sense of joy this year. Joy in being able to meet in person, joy in being able to have more people involved (and all ages) in Church Online, joy in sharing hot cross buns after the Easter service, joy in the Easter egg hunt, joy in community, and joy in worship. We received this email response: 'I just wanted to share how wonderful this morning's online service was. The stations of the cross, with the Bible readings and then prayers to connect each reading with the present and the individual was very moving. Thank you (and the Adelaide West community) for continuing the online worship services. I appreciate how much work there is to prepare and record each week. May God continue to bless the AW community in all you do.'

This time last year we didn't think that an online community was a 'real' experience or community – a year of COVID-19 changed that. Church is changing, the message of hope is the same, but the methods are changing. What a joy it is to share the Gospel each week to people anywhere – in lounge rooms, on holidays, and in smaller churches as a service. Inviting people to church is as easy as sending a YouTube link.

May God use the little we do to share the good news and the joy of knowing God.

Blessings on your week, Lynne
